Womens Worlds rip it up at Reisa

103 fellow lifters & the surprisingly modern town of Riesa in East Germany, were the settings for the four Australians and two New Zealanders taking part in the Womans World Championships, held on May 29th to June 2nd. Unsurprisingly, Russia took out the team title and also unsurprisingly Ukraine was second, with Australia in a respectable 16th and New Zealand 19th.

The lighter classes were highlighted by Raija Kosteien of Finland's 405kg at 44 and sub junior Jennifer Maile's third at 48kg. However Australia's Mary Macken was far from disgraced with 300kg and 9th place in the 48kg class. This was Mary's best total since her back injury and chilbirth of 2001 and hopefully she will get back in the 315 range before long.

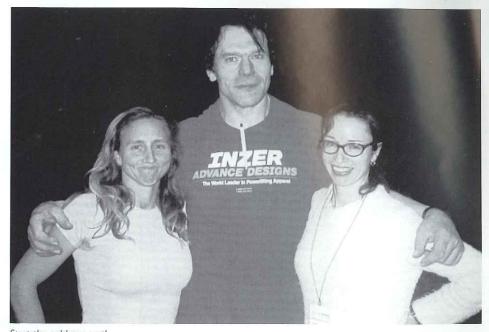

In the 52kg class Nikola Jenko, went close to overall best lifter with 497 1/2kg total. In 8th place Deborah Groves defied the nay-sayers with an unquestionable 325kg total, I 10kg opener squat was close to not being locked out, but I 17 1/2kg was an outstanding 3 whites effort, as was her 75kg third benchpress. I 32 1/2kg was also a clear deadlift, but I 42 1/2kg drew two reds for supporting and Deborah will go on from this, only her second contest.

The 56kg class saw more antipodean action with Jeannette Gevers, wine-like growing more sensible with age, steady at 367 1/2kg and a high 7th place. Tania Green of New Zealand came through in her first Worlds with 312 1/2kg and 9th place.

At 67 I/2kg, Kudinova of Russia was lean at 63,4kg and produced a modest, for her, 595kg but was a picture of control in so doing. Labouring in the vineyards of the B Group,

Mary Giffin showed outstanding improvement with 8 successful attempts and 405kg, total and now needs to think in terms of the 460kg-480kg she is capable of and which is needed to make the top 6 in this class. The heavier classes were dominated by Russia, with four winners from 75kg to 90kg + and numerous Worlds Records. Most impressive was super heavyweight Karpova, who squatted 285kg very easily and turned back many time winner Chao. Jacky Buckley of New Zealand struggled through with only 3 successful attempts, her misses all virtually due to rough technique, for 510kg and 7th in the 90kg class, but showed medallist potential if she can smooth things out.

Spot the odd one out!

AUSTRALIAN CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Australian Championships are on this year at Launceston, in the Earl Arts Centre, site of the 1999 Masters & Junior Championships.

This event will bring together Australia's best lifters along with teams from Nauru & other Oceania nations. The qualifying total is B Grade for both men and women. In conjunction with the Australian championships will be two other events. The Oceania Invitational will be open to other Oceania nations and also Australians (Junior, Master or Open) who have not otherwise qualified fir the Australian Championships. The Elite Bench Press Invitational will be for Australia & Oceania's top bench pressers, with the qualifying being Elite II bench.

So there is a place for everyone in Launceston! Entry forms are enclosed, or can be obtained at www.powerliftingaustralia.homestead.com Entries close 7th July, so enter now.

MARATHON SUITS, TITAN GEAR

After initially advising that Marathon suits would cease to be approved wear for competition, the IPF has now stayed that decision. Thus marathon suits will be legal for all competition indefinitely. However note that Marathon suits have long since ceased being manufactured.

Titan Deadlift Suits and Titan NXG Bench Press Suits have been approved for competition and are legal as from 1st June 2002.

MEMBERSHIP -NOTICE OF DEFAULT

All members of the Association with unpaid dues are reminded that in accordance with by-Law 8(1), your membership shall be terminated on the 30th June 2002, if your membership dues remain unpaid at that date. Dated 31 May 2002

GAY GAMES

What's the biggest sporting event in the world? The Olympic Games? The World Cup?
No...it's the Gay Games, held every 4 years, around the world. The 2002 Games will be held in Sydney and 14,000 competitors will take part (in comparison to 10,000 for the Olympic Games). Powerlifting will be held on 3rd November under the direction of none other than Bob Orr. Entries close 31st July – more information at www.sydney2002.org.au.

DRUGTESTING RESULTS

As a result of drug testing carried out by the Australian Sports Drug Agency under Powerlifting Australia's anti-doping policy the following suspension applies:

Lawrence Heffernan, 11th September 2001-10th September 2004
